

North Loose Residents' Association

Voice of the Community

When is a quiz night not a quiz night?

Unfortunately when we are restricted to how many people can meet safely at one time

We have therefore made an early decision that we will not be able to hold our planned quiz night in October. We hope we may be able to set this up again when conditions improve.